Woodinville, Wash. – January 13, 2003 – The PoliteChild today announced that Lake Forest Park Montessori in Seattle will begin offering PoliteChild manners and etiquette programs beginning in February, 2003.

“We are happy to welcome Lake Forest Park Montessori to our growing list of member schools,” said Corinne Gregory, Founder and Program Director of The PoliteChild. “Making our classes available through their facility shows that Lake Forest Park Montessori is strongly committed to the concepts of having and using Good Manners and the development of excellent social skills.”

Lake Forest Park Montessori will begin offering The Basic Course at two grade categories: EarlyLearners (preschool-K) and GradeSchool (ages 6-9). Classes begin in February, and will be open to the public as well as to its student body. Other PoliteChild course offerings may be added in the future.

“We are excited to be offering these classes at our school,” said Eve Buckle, Director of Lake Forest Park Montessori School. “The approach and values mesh well with the Montessori curriculum and philosophy.”
